

North Carolina would have roughly
$2 BILLION MORE
if corporate income tax rates were more in line with our neighbors in South Carolina and Virginia.

With that money, North Carolina could fund:

Teacher pay at the national
increase of $16,500)

AND

6,200 teaching positions
locally funded)

THE INCOME TAX AMENDMENT WOULD CONSERVATIVELY BLOCK

$17 BILLION

IN STATE FUNDING CAPACITY.

With that money, NC could fund the education every child in our state deserves by...

HELPING US CATCH UP TO OUR NEIGHBORS:

Teacher pay at the national average ($1.5 billion)

Per pupil spending at the national average ($8.7 billion)

AND HELPING US CATCH UP ON UNPAID BILLS:

Fund 40% of facilities needs in school buildings,
such as HVAC updates ($6.6 billion)
